FR. GONDERINGER HONORED

Priests reaching milestone anniversaries were honored at an April 9 Mass at St. Patrick Parish in Fremont.

The 10 men celebrating golden and silver jubilees (50- and 25-year ordination anniversaries) have given a combined 400 years of service to the Church.

Commemorating 50-year anniversaries were Father Gerald Gonderinger, Father Michael Gutgsell, Father Gerald Leise, Father David Liewer, Father James Tiegs and Jesuit Father Gregory I. Carlson.

Commemorating silver jubilees of 25 years were Father William Bond, Father Damien Cook, Father Ryan Lewis and Benedictine Father Anastasius Reiser, prior of Christ the King Priory in Schuyler. Commemorating ruby jubilees of 40 years were Father Frank Jindra, Father Gregory Benkowski and, in memoriam, Father Stephen Gutgsell.

Several other priests marked significant milestones: Msgr. Ralph Steffensmeier, 65 years; Father James Novotny, 60 years; Father Don Shane, 55 years; Father Michael Grewe, Father Daniel Kampschneider and Jesuit Father Andy Alexander, 45 years.

"My priesthood turned out much differently than what I planned or expected," Fr. Gonderinger said. "It turned out much better. I had not 'planned' for teaching or Hispanic ministry and I have profoundly enjoyed both. God always has better plans! Being a founding pastor of a parish is a profound experience of grace."

Fr. Gonderinger was the founding pastor of St. Stephen the Martyr Parish in Omaha.

KNIGHTS BREAKFAST TODAY AT ST. BON'S

The St. Bonaventure Knights of Columbus Council 938 will be serving breakfast today in the St. Bonaventure Parish Center from 9:00 a.m. to noon. The menu will include omelet eggs, sausage, hash browns, muffins (chocolate chip, blueberry, and apple), juice and coffee. Free will donations will be accepted and go to the Summer Bible School program. All are welcome to attend and support this worth cause.
